

hello my name is, as you know Jung. i have been a faithful listener of air 1 for about 2year now and i am sadden by the news of the lpfm and how we might will lose our local air1 fm radio service. i think that air1 has been a good radio station for the community where it give out positive messages through out the communities. i hope that the fcc will change your minds and keep air1 on.